TOPICS IN FOCUS

Daniel Omeragic's impressions on EUVP

In the beginning of December, Oslobodjenje journalist Daniel Omeragic visited Brussels and Strasbourg within the framework of the EU Visitors Programme (EUVP). EUVP's aim is to enable young leaders, potential leaders and public opinion creators from non-EU Member States to obtain first-hand impressions of the EU's policies, Institutions and achievements and to increase the mutual understanding between professionals from non-EU countries and their EU counterparts.

Interim Sub-committee on Innovation, Information Society, Social Policy & Public Health cancelled again

The Interim Sub-committee meeting on Innovation, Information Society, Social Policy and Public Health, scheduled for 27 and 28 November in Mostar, was cancelled by the European Commission due to the inability of the BiH authorities to reach a common position on the topics to be discussed.

ICT technologies strengthen fight against all forms of crime

On 20 and 21 November a two day conference was held in Sarajevo as part of the EU's Support to the Law Enforcement Project on the 'Role of Information and Communication Technologies in Global Security'. The event saw the participation of fifty relevant stakeholders of the process of strengthening security system in BiH.
